

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, March 15. 1705.

Paris, March 6.

THE Medals struck here for the Year 1705, are eleven in Number. They have all the King's Head on one side, and on the other different Devices and Inscriptions. Most of them have Relation to the chief Offices through which the publick Business passes.

The Device of the 1st is the Sun with Clouds about it, at the Bottom are these Words, Tresor Royal, The Royal Treasury. The Motto above is, Nec sistunt Nubila Cursum, Clouds do not stop his Course. The 2d has Regard to the Dutcheff of Burgundy, the Device is a Crescent or Half Moon. The Motto, Lucidior dum crescit, It grows brighter as it increases. The Device of the 3d is Jupiter sitting on a flying Eagle, and Transfixing a Giant with his Thunder; at the Bottom is the Word Artillerie. The Motto is, Nec satis est tonuisse semel, 'Tis not enough to have thundered once. The Device of the 4th is an Eagle on the Wing casting Jupiter's Thunder out of his Pounces, and with it shattering a Fleet on the Sea beneath him. At the Bottom is the Word Marine. The Motto is, Pelago sensere Tonantem, They felt his Thunder at Sea. The Device of the 5th is Neptune in his Chariot drawn swiftly over the Billows by Sea-Horses. At the Bottom is the Word Galeres, Gallies. The Motto is, Nec Flutus Ignisque Morantur, Nor Waves nor Fire stop his Passage. The Device of the 6th is Pallas arm'd as usual, with a Spear in one Hand and her shield in the other. At the Bottom are these Words, Ordinaire des Guerres. The Ordinary Establishment of the War. The Motto is, Quam Forti Pectore & Armis! How bold a Spirit! how strong in Arms! The Device of the 7th is Hercules leaning on his Club. At the Bottom are these Words, Extraordinaire des Guerres, The Extraordinary Charge of the War. The Motto is, Nec frangere Labores, He does not sink under his Labours. The Device of the 8th is an Altar with Fruit plac'd upon it, at the Bottom are these Words, Parties casuelles, Accidental Revenues. The Motto is, Munera non pereunt, These Offerings are not unprofitable. The Device of the 9th is a Looking-Glass plac'd on a Table. At the Bottom are these Words, Chambre aux Deniers, The Office of Interest. The Motto is, Reddit ut accipit, It gives back what it receives. The Device of the 10th is, the Sun shining on a Celestial and a Terrestrial Globe, under which is the Words, Globes pases a Marli, Globes set up at Marli. At the Bottom are these Words, Batimens du Roy, The King's Buildings. The Motto is, Et Cælum & Terras Spectat, He Surveys both Heaven and Earth. The Device of the 11th is the Sun shining on the Earth. At the Bottom are these Words, La Ville de Paris, The City of Paris. The Motto is, Lætor dum Respicias, I am cheer'd with thy Presence. These Devices and Mottos, were made by the Academy of Medals and Inscriptions.

Falmouth, March 11. Yesterday sail'd the New Prince of Frizeland, a Privateer of Flushing, a cruising. This day came in here the Anna Catherina, a Privateer of the same Place, that retok the Mansbridge Packet-boat coming from Lisbon, 3 days after she was taken.

Plymouth, March 11. On the 9th Instant, in the Night, came in from the Eastward her Majesty's Ship the Fowlston; she sail'd hence yesterday to joyn the West India Fleet, and under her Convooy the George of Plymouth, Henry Reeves Master, for Barbadoes; the Adventure of Plymouth, Nicholas Perdw Master, for Antegoa, and the Liberty of Plymouth, John Vennard Master, for Carolina. Last Night came in 2 Ships of and for Amsterdam, with Soldiers on Board from Bourdeaux, being part of the Succours that were sent to Gibraltar but were taken by the French and carried into Cadix.

Harwich, March 12. Yesterday her Majesty's Ships the Crown, Assistance, and Hampshire, arriv'd here from the Downs. This Morning the Dispatch, Eagle, and Dolphin Packet-boats were oblig'd by a contrary Wind to return back hither a Third time, so that now 4 Mails for Holland are here.

London, March 15.

Yesterday the Queen went to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne in her Royal Robes, and the Commons being sent for up, Her Majesty was pleas'd to give the Royal Assent to

The Act for a further Duty on Low-wines, Coffee, Tea, &c.

That for a Duty on Wine and Merchandize imported.

That for punishing Mutineers and Deserters.

That for raising the Militia.

That for encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from the Plantations.

That against Pitkin and fraudulent Bankrupts.

That

That to prohibit Commerce with France.
That to prevent all traiterous Correspondence with the Queen's Enemies.

That for the more easy recovery of small Tithes.

That for the Exportation of Irish Linnen to the Plantations.

That for a Union with Scotland.

That for giving like Remedy on Notes under Hand, as on Bills of Exchange.

That to prevent sophisticating of Wines.

That for making the Rivers Stour and Dun navigable.

That to augment the Vicarage of Gainfborough.

That for recruiting Her Majesty's Forces.

That for settling the Grant of Woodstock &c. on the Duke of Marlborough.

And also to 5; private Acts.

After which her Majesty was pleas'd to make a most gracious Speech to both Houses, containing in Substance, 'That she thank'd them for the speedy Supplies, and assur'd them they should be applied to the Uses for which they were given. That she question'd not they would always assist her in so just a War, that thereby it might be made to end in a glorious Peace. That she recommended to them Peace and Union among themselves; and expected that all who are in publick Places would take care to hinder all Animosities. And then the Lord Keeper did by her Majesty's Order prorogue the Parliament to the 1st of May next.

The Earl of Dalkeith, eldest Son of the late Duke of Monmouth, is dead.

The Lady Wyndham, is dead likewise.

Yesterday Sir John Fleet was chosen President of St. Bartholomew's Hospital, in the Room of Sir William Pritchard deceas'd.

On Tuesday Lieutenant Colonel Spencer of the Green Regiment of this City, died suddenly in the Artillery Ground.

Not Acted there these six Years.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, this present Thursday being the 15th of March, will be revived a Comedy call'd, She Would, If She Cou'd. Written by Sir George Ethridge. For the Benefit of Mr. Estcourt. With Singing by Mr. Leveridge, Mr. Hughs, and the New Boy. And several Entertainments of Dancing by Monsieur du Ruel, Mrs. du Ruel, Monsieur Cherrier, and Mrs. Moles. The Parts of Sir Oliver Cockwood and Sir Jollin Jolly to be perform'd by Mr. Dogget and Mr. Estcourt.

This Play is Sold by Richard Wellington at the Dolphin and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard. Where you may have most Novels.

An Entertainment by

Mr. CLINCH of BARNET, who imitates the Flute, Double Curtail, the Organ with three Voices, the Horn, Huntsman and Pack of Hounds, and several other things too tedious to be inserted. To which is added a Comical Dance. To be seen at the Swan Tavern in St. Martin's le Grand, this present Thursday being the 15th instant, beginning at Six a Clock in the Evening. price 1s.

The Royal Chymical Wash-Ball for the Hands and Face, largely experienc'd and daily commended by all that use them, and that for making the Skin so delicately white, soft and smooth, as not to be parallell'd by either Wash, Powder, &c. and is indeed a real Beautifier of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetter, Ringworms, Morpew, Sun-burn, &c. rendering it fair and of a delectable Whiteness, soon alter red or rough Hands, and is the best thing in the World to be us'd with, which by comforting the Head, Brains and Nerves, prevents taking Cold; and of a delightful Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Is sold only at Mr. Allnut's a Glover at the corner of Popes-Head-Alley against the Royal Exchange, and at Mrs. Giles's Millener and Toyshop next door to Hercules-Pillar-Court near the Inner-Temple-Gate Fleet-Street, at 1s. each, with printed Directions.

Mr. John Ovie, Pastry-Cook;

Westminster, having been for many Years under the Blindness of Cataracts of both Eyes, was about 15 Years ago by Monsieur Gerrald, the French Oculist, with so bad Success Confinement, that he was totally discouraged of Help, till he resolv'd to apply himself to Dr. READ, Her Majesty's Oculist, in a Yard in the Strand, London, who Cough'd and brought him to his perfect Sight, without any Pain, on the 3d Instant, and but four days Confinement, that no ways incommoded him: Which the said John Ovie inferred for the publick Good, not only here but in the Gazette, that People may not be impos'd upon by Pretenders.

The Right Venetian Stroops, being the Only Fam'd Ones made, as appears by the many Thousands that have been sold; notwithstanding the many false Shams, foolish Impertinencies, and ridiculous Pretences, (as Original, &c.) that are almost every day publish'd to promote the Sale of Counterfeits, and to lessen the great and wonderful Fame of these Venetian Stroops, which are most certainly the best in the World, for they will give Razors, Penknives, Lancets, &c. such an exquisite, fine, smooth, sharp, exact and durable Edge, that the like was never known, which has been experienc'd by Thousands of Gentlemen in England, Scotland and Ireland. Are sold only at Mr. All-crate's a Toyshop at the Blue-Coat-Boy against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at Mr. Brooks's a Stationer at the Ship near the May-Pole in the Strand, and at Mr. Cooper's a Toyshop at the corner of Charles-Court near York-Buildings in the Strand, at 1s. each, or 10s. a Dozen (nearly fix'd on Boards) with Directions.

This present Thursday being the 15th Instant, at 2 a Clock in the Afternoon, in Exeter-Change up stairs, will begin the Sale by Auction of a very extraordinary Parcel of fine old China Ware. And for the better Accommodation of Gentlemen and Ladies, the several Pairs and particular Pieces will be sold apart, as gradually mento'd in the Catalogues now publish'd, and to be seen at the place of Sale till all be sold. The China may be view'd all day till the Sale begins.

The Famous Antirheumatick Tincture, prepared only by Mr. Geo. Wilson Chymist, at his Elaboratory in Well-yard near St. Bartholomew's Hospital by Smithfield. The Reputation this Tincture has acquir'd by its wonderful Operation, put me beyond thought of ever publishing it again in this manner, till I was inform'd that it was counterfeited by some Person that falsely pretends to it; whereas its true Preparation exceeds the Skill of common Jumblees of Concoctes for Medicines. It hath cured several hundred Persons of Quality and others, not only of Rheumatick Pains, but also of other chronick Diseases. They who have the Curiosity to be farther satisfied in its Effects, may at the place aforesaid see several Letters from Persons of Quality, Physicians, Chyrurgeons and Apothecaries, giving an Account of the admirable Cures it has perform'd. It is now where sold but at the place above mention'd, and by my Daughter Mrs. Wilson, at the Hermet's Head six Doors from James-street in Long-Acre towards Drury-Lane. It is put up in Bottles containing something more than half a quarter of a Pint, at 2s. 6d. the Bottle with Directions. The Materia Medica, and Modus Preparandi (in general) shall not be denied to any Physician, especially to those Gentlemen that have been enter'd by me in the excellent and useful Science of Chymistry; of which number there are many eminent Physicians now living in England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Italy, Germany, Swedeland, &c.

Whereas mention has been made in all the publick Papers, of a new Academy erected at Berlin by the King of Prussia; and since not only the Fathers of Children, but likewise all that are publick-spirited Lovers of their Country, do generally concern themselves in the Education of Youth: This is to give Notice, that the Regulations, Statutes, and Privileges of that Academy, regarding the Foundation it self, the Governours and Directors, the Professors and Masters of Exercises, and the Academists of all Conditions, are now in the Press, confirm'd and sign'd by his Majesty, and may serve for a Supplement as well as a Confirmation of Mr. Toland's Account of the Court of Prussia, being printed on the same Paper, that they may be conveniently bound together.

Dr. Talbor having lately presented Her Majesty with certain medicinal Secrets communicated to him by his Brother Sir Robert Talbor (Physician in Ordinary to K. Charles II. and famous in this and divers Nations for the infallible Cure of Agues) and declar'd himself then ready to prepare Quantities of them, and expose them to sale for the publick Good, tho' not willing to publish the Secrets to the Prejudice of his Family: Has accordingly prepared, and now exposes to sale the choicest, and chiefest of which he calls PANACEA; which is a Cordial Anodine giving rest and ease in all Distempers that need it: It is Diaphoretick and Diuretick. It quiets the Archaes of Nature, sweetly composes the mind for Thought, and frees the Body from Pain: It is a Cure in Coughs and Catarrhs; helps Astmas, Gouts, Rheumatisms, Headach, Toothach, Epileptick and Hysterick Fits, and Hypochondriack; prevents and removes Delicia's in Fevers: And is plac'd to be sold in London at Mr. Child's Book-seller at the White Hart in St. Paul's Church-yard, at Mr. Chorley's Glas-seller at the Phoenix against St. Bride's Church in Fleetstreet. In Essex at the Author's own House in Kelvedon, at Nathaniel Gentry's in Witham, and at Mr. Blith's Book-seller in Colchester.

The Voyage of the Sieur Paul Lucas to the Levant. In 2 Vol. Duodecimo. Translated out of French into English, will speedily be publish'd by A. and J. Churchill at the Black Swan in Peter-Noster-Row.

On Saturday will be publish'd,

Familiar Letters from the late famous Mrs. Phillips, to the late Sir Charles Cottrell, under the Name of Orinda to Polyarchus. Printed from the Originals found in Sir Charles's Cabinet since his Death, by Bernard Lintott at the Middle-Temple-Gate in Fleetstreet.

A Critical Essay on the Modern Medals. With some Reflections on the Taste and Judgment of the Ancients. Sold by John Taylor at the Ship in St. Paul's Church-yard.